“SEN & Puberty”

A workshop for parents, carers and professionals

Mark will explore the issues faced by children/teenagers with special needs and the people around them when the child/teenager is going through puberty. This includes:

- Identifying some of the characteristics of puberty that have a massive impact upon children/teenagers with special needs.
- Provide understanding in relation to anger management as a teenager
- Look at practical approaches toward inappropriate sexualised behaviour

Guest Speaker: Mark Brown

Mark has worked with people with special needs for over 30 years and founded Special Help 4 Special Needs in 2010, working as an advisor with a range of children with special needs.
